

Experienced? Check.
Humorous? Check.
Enthralling?

Just come and see...

Les Rose

Keynote speaker at the
NHSPA Fall Convention

• Les works as a photojournalist for the CBS News bureau in Los Angeles • His television career started in 1978 • He worked for 13 years with NBC News from 1984-1986 • He worked in Miami as a freelancer • He shot for WFLA (Tampa) • He shot for KTVI (St. Louis) (St. Petersburg) • He shot for WTSP (St. Petersburg) • He works on CBS Evening News • He works on CBS Sunday Morning • Les works on 60 Minutes • He works on The CBS Early Show • He spent most six years as the photojournalist for the "Everybody Has a Story" series with Steve Hartman, produced more than 125 stories found completely at random • He works on the "Assignment America" series whenever Steve Hartman is west of the Rockies • He has covered such major stories as 9/11 in Shankesville, Pennsylvania (on that day) and then NYC, the Ceritos Air disaster, the Civil Wars of Nicaragua and El Salvador for NBC News, the Northridge Earthquake, the O.J. Simpson and Michael Jackson trials, a hostage release in Wiesbaden, West Germany, the Malibu Fires, political conventions, multiple hurricanes, Oscars, Emmys, Grammys, major sports events and countless celebrity interviews • He recently spent 10 days on the trail with Barack Obama as the pool videographer • Les loves frequent lecturing • Les loves the N.P.P.A. Video Workshop, the Hawaii Association of Broadcasters, Global Television in Calgary and Edmonton, Icelandic State

Television, the University of South Florida, E.S.P.A., WTSP-TV, WPBF-TV, the I.R.E., the RTNDA with Al Tompkins, the Student Television Network, the Broward Teen Network, the Missouri, New Mexico, West Virginia, and NATOA Broadcasters • His awards include a Murrow and a DuPont with Steve Hartman, and nine local Emmys • His goals for are to tell great stories for CBS News • His hobbies include, hanging out with his family (wife and 2 kids) and his friends...oh yeah, and sitting in LA traffic! Some of his favorite quotes are "Live, Learn, Luck, Laugh, Love," and "The Golden Rule, Rules." Information from the UNL web site.

Rock 'n Roll, movies, hanging out with his family (wife and 2 kids) and his friends...oh yeah, and sitting in LA traffic! Some of his favorite quotes are "Live, Learn, Luck, Laugh, Love," and "The Golden Rule, Rules." Information from the UNL web site.

Register by Oct. 9

Print out a form at <http://marian.creighton.edu/~nhspa/>